

A Letter to a Hungry Child

Dear Children,

We are in Hong Kong. We were shown pictures of your hardship in life. We feel we are very fortunate. We feel worry that we are wasting a lot of food while you are suffering hunger. We should now learn how to treasure what we have.

We admire your perseverance and receptive to such hardship. We will not forsake the people on the part of the world. We will endeavour to help you fight against hungry and poverty. I will keep help by contributing a portion of my pocket money as a gesture of my sincerely.

Please do not forget that in this world, we have United Nation which, aims to preserve peace, equality and prosperity to all countries in the world, you are a part of this world and are entitled to such assistant to alleviate poverty and hunger. The United Nation and we are the blessed people will aim to help you attain a better life.

We will help you to regain dignity. We will support your goals and aims in life. We admire and respect your courage and strong will to fight against hunger and poverty in spite of such difficult life.

Yours truly,

Jonathan Ho
