VISION TALKS

1

Let's Talk Toilets

Nearly 1/3 of the world's population doesn't have access to a washroom. How does it affect them?

Key Learning:

1. Water, sanitation & hygiene issues in developing countries
2. The impacts of a contaminated environment, the lack of water resources and poor personal hygiene
3. How to help communities establish and maintain a hygienic environment

2

Shopping with Conscience

Unknowingly, we might be encouraging unethical business practices. As consumers, how can we make positive influences on businesses?

Key Learning:

1. The unethical business practices in industries
2. The cost borne by the victims of human trafficking, child labour and exploitations
3. Actions to promote ethical consumerism

VISION WORKSHOPS

If you'd like students to gain in-depth understanding on certain topics, turn your Vision Talks into Vision Workshops!

What's the difference?

Vision Talks	Vision Workshops
30-40 min	50-60 min
50 + students	30-50 students
Suitable for larger groups	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Designed for smaller groups • Games, group discussions and students presentations • Students' iPads or laptops are needed for discussion sessions

Vision Talks or Workshops

Which one would you like?

Step 1: Pick a Topic

Step 2: Choose Vision Talks or Workshops

Each school can apply for 2 Vision Talks per academic year

First come, first served!

VISION ACTIONS

1

School Famine

"Why go hungry when you can simply make donations?"

Because walking with the poor is more than about making donations. It is about walking in their shoes.

Self-organised or facilitated by World Vision staff in three different ways:

- Rich & Poor's Banquet
- Skip-A-Meal
- 10-30 Hour Famine

Sign up & get our Famine Kit with programme guidelines!

For more details, go to www.worldvision.org.hk/en/sf

2

Red Packet Campaign

Date: Jan-Mar 2021

Share your blessings by donating red packets to other children!

Donation Boxes available for borrowing!

3

Campus Visit

We would be delighted to come to school events, like service fairs or conferences and tell you more about World Vision!

School Resources

Our exhibition boards, banners, videos, articles and workshop materials are available for borrowing. Please browse our catalogue at:

Be the voice!
Be the change!

In Uganda, a group of children are using their voices to save the lives of their friends! We believe that Hong Kong students can also make positive influences on the lives of others!
